Fun Treasure Hunt & Scavenger Hunt Ideas: 1) Find the Clues. We've used this type of treasure hunt as a family. Instead of taking our kids "Trick or Treating" on Halloween, we chose to create a fun treasure hunt for them not only to find candy treats, but also Biblical treats. Bible Scavenger Hunt I recently organized a scavenger hunt for our end of Sunday School picnic. For the younger children, I made a list of clues in rhyming verse that are drawn from the Bible, which are underlined, but I didn't include Bible references. Play the Bible Scavenger Hunt with them. Collect all the items you see on the list above. These will be your items that you will hide outside. Separate your kids into 2 teams. Then give each team a bible and a plastic bag. Appoint a team captain for each team. Print the Bible Scavenger Hunt Team List 1 off and hand it to the 1st team. In this scavenger hunt, teams must use the Bible to solve 66 simple puzzles. (One from each book of the Bible.) The answers to these puzzles are the items they must hunt for. A great activity for family or ministry events. You can also use this game to teach about the Bible, the Parables of the Hidd
